MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR F. J. CONNELLY

Hot Springs, Arkansas,
January 14, 1937.

Re: Breklid,

There are attached hereto the logs for January 12, 1937 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, at the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Note that call at 12:42 P.M. where Day Captain Jerry Watkins politely tells a gambler that he is looking for probably another gambler. Last week a Matt Brown was arrested for being drunk and disturbing the peace, and it is very likely that the individual who instant conversation is identical with the said Matt Brown.

That call at 2:50 P.M. between "Dutch" Akers and Emmett Jackson, City Clerk, indicates that Akers apparently contemplates borrowing $600.00 from the City.
or from Jackson to pay for a new Buick automobile which is waiting for his delivery within his at the Buick Agency.

That conversation between "Dutch" Akers and Chief Halckin at 4:15 P.M. is very interesting. It should be noted that Grady Manning and a Little Rock crowd is expected to take over the gambling at the Kingway Hotel. From previous conversations, it is our guess that Joe Schneider and Raymond Reaves of Little Rock, Arkansas will be associated with Manning in this venture. I recently submitted a memorandum setting forth two conversations between Mayor Velaughlin and a person at telephone # 2115 and a conversation between the Mayor and Grady Manning.
It is now believed that those three conversations had reference to getting a sanc- tion from W. S. Jacobs to operate gambling games at the Kingway. It has since been determined that telephone # 2115 is the unlisted number assigned to W. S. Jacobs.

Note that call at 9:22 P.M., between "Dutch" Akers and an unidentified man. Apparently # 2566 is unpublished as it does not appear in the local telephone directory. We have no idea what the conversation reflected in this call pertains to.

All these conversations over the Mayor's phone pertaining to the solution expected to be introduced providing for an appropriation to conduct an inves- tigation in Hot Springs are very important, and should be set out in a report.

The identity of Carroll Hollingsworth, Joe Schneider, Ed Holley, Jr., and should be determined and explained in the conversations of this date.

Respectfully submitted,

Actor: I got a letter today from an attorney up there, asking me to get some information for him. I thought perhaps you could represent the people involved down here.

Harmon: What kind of a suit is it?

Actor: It's a pretty good one — it involves a death.

Harmon: Who are the people here?

Actor: The case is a maid who works at the Arlington Hotel — she gets off at four. Why don't you let me bring them up and talk with you — about 4:30 today.

Harmon: Can't make it today — hear about 4:30 tomorrow afternoon?

Mrs. Washburn: The weather has got him down.

Abreu: Is he still in bed?

Mrs. Washburn: I'm out.

Abreu: Ask him if there is anything he wants from town.

Washburn: Hello.

Abreu: Any thing you want?

Washburn: You can send me some meat to go along with these green peas. I got (legume).

Abreu: I'm going to send $50.00 to that boy - do you think that will be enough?

Washburn: Yeah, I think so.

Abreu: It'll have to do for the present. I'll get a money order for it and send it by air mail. I tried to wire Harris, but they don't have a telegraph office there - guess the town is too small to have one.

Washburn: Babe Huff was up here after these rings - he was short a month.
about using the power of attorney to get that stuff.

Alice: Did you give them those rings and jewelry?

Walter: No, I told him to see Vere (Ledgewood).

Alice: But he hasn't been after me to get those rings from you. I just kept telling him off, telling him you were sick. One of those rings belongs to Scotty, don't it?

Walter: Yeah. What's doing down there?

Alice: Everything is quiet. I talked with her this morning about getting a fingerprint classifier. She wants to make up that back. He said he wasn't going to quit until back up.

Walter: Did he say anything about me?

Alice: No, he didn't. But he did indicate that he was going to let you make a sick leave until December. It's my guess that he won't do anything on your direction until the first of the month.
Naborin: So he's not going to take Cent back?

Aber: No, he said he thought with him.

Naborin: I haven't seen Jim (Hedgerow) in two or three days, so I don't know much of what's going on.

Aber: I understand he moved back into the Core (Hotel).

Naborin: Who's the gambling at the King's joy?

Aber: I understand they're going to open up there on the 16th. They all and the Southern Club, Citizens, & Millers.

Naborin: Who has it at the King's joy?

Aber: Brody Manning and that crowd from Little Rock.

Naborin: Yeah?

Aber: I talked with Jake (W.E. Jacobs) the other day, and I understood him to say that they weren't going to have any gambling there (King's Joy) this year. But I heard today that they will be ready to open up on the 16th.
Wes: What about that thing that fellow Nicholet was going to introduce over in Little Rock - is that taken care of?

Alice: Yes, I don't think there will be any thing to it. Say Joe, do you know what happened to one of those other machines that were in that back room?

Wes: No, I don't.

Alice: I think Carl took it and is going to put it up at the hotel (Knights) now. He's got nothing to do with those machines - I washed up the fellow with them. I'm going to get after him, and get that machine back.

Wes: What else?

Alice: I've got an introduction case down here, and Dick Ryan is supposed to be handling it for the other side.
We can't do anything with him - lit's scared to death of Carl (Body)
Ahem. Don't you know anybody around town that can classify fingerprints?
I remember that a while - I think we were fishing around with fingerprints a while back, but I don't remember who they were now.

Vachelir: No, I don't know of anybody.

Ahem. I talked with Tommy Wilson today about helping us out ten -

Vachelir: Well, I hope to be up and around in a couple of days.

Ahem. I'll try and drop in to see you in the morning, if you can think of anybody qualified enough to run the Bureau down here, give me a ring. All right, but I don't know anybody that can do that.

Aker - Did you see them?
Man - I seen the boy, but I haven't seen the old man yet. There's something coming up in the morning. I don't know exactly how you stand yet.
Aker - What did the boy say?
Man - They couldn't say for sure. Just said that the machinery had been put in motion and that it would be Saturday or Monday before they'd know how you stand. I'll try to see the old man tomorrow.
Aker - Well, thanks.

3:00 P.M. Manning

Mayor called lastly Manning at the Mason Hotel in Little Rock.

Mayor: Sonny (Jones) and Wm. (Ledge-wood) are here talking about this thing. I called Joe a while ago to컨 curt him to get his reaction on that thing we were talking about.

He hasn't as yet been able to get a hold of him.

Manning: All depends on the attitude of the boss about this.

Mayor: You mean Carl?
Manning: Yes.

Mayor: Well, that has a lot to do with it, I admit.

Manning: The information I get down here doesn't sound very good to me. They held a conference in Lord's office this morning, and from what little I could gather indirectly, it seems that he encouraged it along. That's just hearing now. I didn't get it direct.

Mayor: Have they adjourned down there yet?

Manning: Yes.

Mayor: Have you talked with John (Bangford) since they came in?

Manning: Yes, and he doesn't feel any too good about it. But we can depend upon him all right to do all he can to kill it.

Mayor: This thing may even get so far reaching that it will have something to do with the men that join up to make the union
get in down here.

Mayor: Well, it may or may not.

Mammy: Say Leo, in all due respect to Jim Campbell, I don't think that he has done all he could about this thing. He had that follow-up in his room the other day, and I don't think he made on them like he should have.
He's got the wrong start on this thing - has the idea that he's going to argue it on the floor to keep it from being passed. Hell, we can't afford to have that thing even introduced.

Mayor: I don't know what got into you.

Mammy: Well, I'm going to get around and see what I can do and pick up. If I hear of anything Mummy: now I'll call you.
Mayor: I'll be in Little Rock Friday.

Mayor: I don't know his first name, but he's from Logan County.
Holt: do he preach?
Mayor: yeah - that's the one.
Holt: yes, I know him by sight.
Mayor: well, he's came with a resolution that was written down here by Bert Wood, asking for five fellows to be appointed by the Speaker to investigate the judicial circuit down there. The whole damn thing is silly, and I understand that they now
Mayor: There's a fellow named Thompson from Independence County, with them. Do you know him?

Holt: Yes.

Mayor: What sort of a fellow is he?

Holt: A preacher from down there.

Mayor: Can you give us any advice on this?

Holt: You know who this is coming from, don't you?

Mayor: I think so. Scott Ford wrote the thing.

Holt: No, I mean higher than that.

Mayor: Well, our information is that he was now committed on it. They had a conference with him this morning, but he didn't encourage it, nor did he pour any cold water over it. (Probably talking about Caleb Bailey, the Governor.)

Holt: You know, Nichols has been before about this, and he was in favor of it.
Mayor: Do there anything you can do?
Holt: Well, I'm not particularly close to those fellows, but I have some friends over here with whom I can talk and spread the word around.
Mayor: John Bonsford doesn't want it untouched either - he thinks the whole thing is absurd.
Holt: Well, it is absurdly.
Mayor: I'm sure, they tried to introduce it before the board this morning, but John wouldn't take it. I understand now, that they're going to try again tomorrow. They get a couple more brothers today.
Holt: Well, I'm not close enough to those fellows to talk them out of something, but I'll talk to some of my friends here, and get them to pour cold water on it.
Mayor: You'll have to work fast between now and tomorrow morning.
Holt: All right. I'll see what I can do.
3:25 P.M.  Untaggi
Major called Long Distance for Ed. Mr.
Hanson, Jr. at Little Rock.
The first part of their conversation pertained to the mayor's big issue - nothing of importance to this issue.
Major: Are you fellows going to be in session
tomorrow?
Mr. Hanson: Yes.
Major: Do you know this fellow Hinton and about the resolution he is to po et to introduce pending for an appropriation of $500 to invite the judicial circuit down here.
Mr. Hanson: Yes, I heard all about it today.
Major: What's the talk about it up there?
Mr. Hanson: Well, it looks like it is a fence - you talk with three fellows and they pay they are for it - then you talk with two or three more, and they can't do silly.
Mr. Henry: A lot depends on what the boss thinks about it.

Mayor: I heard today that he really has no personal interest in it - and that he's neither encouraging it nor pouring cold water on it.

Mr. Henry: I've heard the first information that he was going to sponsor a bill to provide authority for the State Troopers to step into a town or county where the local police unit must function according to the law.

Mayor: Yeah, I know.

Mr. Henry: I don't if the thing will ever go through - in the first place they'll black their eyes when they hear the amount of the appropriation asked for - $500.

Mayor: Do you think you can do anything about it between now and tomorrow morning? - 20 -
Mr. Henry: Well, I don't know if we can find it, but we can juggle it around a bit.

Mayor: That'll be all right, because that will give us more time to get around.

Mr. Henry: Let me tell you what you can do? Tell your two boys down there not to run wild like they did last year. A lot of them resented it, and naturally were against everything they said and said.

Mayor: Jim (Campbell) is not going to do that this year. I know what he did last year.

Mr. Henry: (Returned to matter of mayoral dinner suit)

Mayor: Well, Ed, I'll try and be up to see you Friday.

MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR E. J. O'NEILL

Re: Breckid.

There is attached hereto a conversation taken over the Mayor's phone which was inadvertently omitted from the logs sent in for January 7, 1937. This conversation undoubtedly refers to the resolution which was passed in the State House of Representatives on this date (1/7/37). The individual named Roscoe in the said conversation, probably refers to Roscoe Johnson who is reported to be part owner of the Southern Club.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madala,
Special Agent.

Major: 2115 (W.S. Jacobs)

Jacobs: Hello.

Major: How do you feel?

Jacobs: Oh, pretty good.

Major: I just had been talking with Mr. Campbell—did you read this morning paper where they intend to introduce a resolution providing for a committee to investigate down there?

Jacobs: Yeah, I read it.

Major: Now, here is what I thought—Mr. Campbell is unusually close to the Speaker and is the kind of fellow that can get around. We can send him up there ahead of time, and he can go around to his friends and talk with them about this thing. Now he claims it will cost about $50,000 to move them with his family and stay there for three or four days until the Assembly opens. While he's there, he can devote his entire time in contacting his friends. What do you think?
JACOBS: I think it will be a good investment.
MAYOR: Yeah, I think so too. I'll try and get there to go over there this afternoon.
I feel that the sooner he gets there, the better it will be for me.
JACOBS: Yeah, that's right.
MAYOR: I'll call him now, and we can talk this thing over - can you get away?

JACOBS: Well, I am working on some minutes, but I can let Jesse take care of that till 3 o'clock.
MAYOR: All right, I'll see you then.

Note: The individual, Jim Campbell, mentioned above, is undoubtedly James P.
Campbell, State Representative, San-lard County, Ark.

Telephone # 2115 is unoccupied. It was occupied on 1/1/37, through January 14th. Please call 2115 at that number, that the same is assigned to M.S. Jacobs.
MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR E. J. CUNDIFF

Re: Breckinridge

There are attached hereto the logs for January 11, 1937 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, all located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

The conversations over the Mayor's phone recorded at 9:02 A.M. and 9:06 A.M. pertain to the resolution providing for an appropriation of $7500.00 and a committee of five to investigate the conditions generally at Hot Springs, Arkansas, which resolution was drawn up by Scott Wood who collaborated with Rev. Lee Nichols and Joe Denby on it, and which will be introduced by Rev. Nichols.

Joe Schneider mentioned in the above conversation is a close personal friend of the Mayor, and he was present with his wife at the Mayor's New Year's Eve Party at the Club Belvedere. It is not known what his connection is in the political circle at Little Rock, Arkansas. The conversation at 9:02 A.M. between Schneider and the Mayor indicates the attitude of the new Governor, Carl Bailey, of the conditions at Hot Springs.

In that conversation at 11:50 A.M. between the Mayor and Charles Celia, owner of the Oaklawn Race Track, it appears that Celia is somewhat griped with the action taken by the merchants in town collectively.

The calls recorded at 7:20 P.M. and 7:25 P.M. disclose that the discharged police officers are having a conference at Arch Cooper's residence.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madala,
Special Agent.

Schmidt: Hello.
Mayor: Joe, this is Lee. Have you heard anything?
Schmidt: Well, I talked with Carl yesterday about that. I don’t think he has a personal interest but he says he doesn’t want me to go poking around.
Mayor: How about lining up your contacts to work on it?
Schmidt: All right, but he said that those things will have to be settled with sooner or later. He also said those indictments should have charged murder if it was murder but I told him that that was just the view of an old prosecutor.

Mayor: Well, Dug told me if this fellow wasn't personally interested that everything would be all right.

Says Carl told me he didn't order it. I talked to him for about 30 minutes. If you have any other contacts send them over to talk with him because I think that best.

Mayor: Where are you, Leo?

Charlie: (softly) I'm in the office.

Mayor: Just fine. How's Joe (Martin)?

Charlie: He's been sick as a dog for the last three days. Looks like the troppe.

Mayor: Say Charlie, what are you going to do about those messings at the track this year?

Charlie: Joe (Martin) will handle that. He's got things.

Mayor: Well, I've been thinking about Joe, and I know he's a good man. I'll give it to him. I want him to have it this year. Joe, let him have it this year, and I'll talk to him about it every year until 1934. Will Joe do that?

Charlie: Yes, sir, and I'll do that.

Mayor: And I thought that if Joe is going to deal those things out, I'd like to participate in that.

Charlie: Say Leo, we get to meet one step down that...
Cella: My problems (financial) last year were $8,000 - that's too damn high. I can't make any money that way. If they're going to get any harder on me, I'm not going to run down there anymore.

Mayor: What's the trouble?

Cella: Just this - the business men are dropping out on me.

Mayor: I haven't heard anything like that down here.

Cella: Well, I got a letter from Higgs two days ago to that effect. I tell you, Leo - I came to the conclusion that if they don't come right down there, I'll tell the whole bunch of them to go to hell.

Mr. Higgs this year, all right, but if things don't change, I won't have anything to do with you fellows next year.

Mayor: I think it will work out all right.

Cella: I've got an offer to rent out the tracks there to some people from Chicago. I am considering that proposition right now, and I come to the conclusion that I can make a damn sight more money that way.
Mayor: What did that letter say and who was it from?
Cella: I think Higgens wrote the letter. We had a meeting last week and he said they needed to give from $3,000 to $4,000, and they now decided to cut that out. I'd like you to come down there and tell the Governor to nix the same time frame.

Mayor: Are we talking about that letter from Agent (??)?
Cella: Yeah.

Mayor: That was just the postcard letter, I don't think there's anything to that.

Cella: I know Leo - I like Nettie Spring's and all that, and I'd like to be done there.
11/1/37

Celia: but if they are going to strike me down I'll tell them all to go to hell.

Leo: Can you send me a copy of that letter?

Celia: Yes, I'll send you a copy, say here do you think it would do any good if I came down there and talked with them...

Leo: No, I don't. Let me talk with Higgins about this, and I am sure every thing can be straightened out. It's funny things, that I don't hear about this meeting up until this time. O.K. Charlie, send me a copy of that letter. I'll take what I can do.

Celia: All right, I'll call Joe and see where it is. I'll also talk to him about that matter you mentioned.

Leo: Goodbye, Charlie.

MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR F. J. CONNELLY:

Res: Brakid.

There are attached hereto the logs for January 15, 1937 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, all located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

The call recorded at 1:41 P.M. between "Dutch" Akers and Dan Marry indicates that Marry is a professional bondman in league with the Police Department and Prosecutor's Office. The background of this particular case is reflected in a conversation made the previous evening around 11:30 P.M. between Maxx Houston Emory and the Sheriff from Iowa who came to Hot Spring in the hopes of extradicting this woman whose name is Sassel.

Referring to that call at 9:00 A.M. over the Mayor's phone between Dick Ryan and Mayor McLaughlin, it is believed that they were talking about the attorney's fees in the litigation of Radio Station KTBS. The Mayor and Ryan represent the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce in this case. Bruce Wallace, mentioned therein, is Vice-Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and the Kemp mentioned, is S. A. Kemp, Postmaster of Hot Springs and Maxx Chairman of the Board, Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.

In that conversation between the Mayor and Or dy Manning at 9:14 A.M., it is believed that they were referring to the resolution just passed providing for a committee to investigate the lawless conditions in Hot Springs.
This fellow, Nichols, is one of the authors of the resolution. It is not known at this end just who "Guy" is, but apparently he is some person that the faction down here is trying to reach to help pour cold water on this resolution.
Hollingsworth's complete name is Carroll Hollingsworth, and recent telephone conversations have indicated that perhaps he is on the local administration's payroll, employed to do his part in discouraging the passage of the resolution above mentioned. It is probable that Carroll Hollingsworth is a State Representative; however, this was not definitely determined over the taps. Recent conversations likewise have indicated that Scott Wood is the real author of the said resolution.

Note the conversation at 10:54 A.M. between Mayor McLaughlin and one EARL who is believed to be Earl Witt, Circuit Judge.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madala,
Special Agent.

Mrs.: Hello.

Mrs.: Did you see that fortune teller yet?

Mrs.: No, I haven't had time yet. What is the trouble up there?

Mrs.: This boy told me that a fellow came in here all scratched up in the face, and his elbow, and that he wanted me to tell his fortune. She told him something about being accused of a murder, which made him...
Ray Ensign jumped out and put on his hat, a hand to his ear. Another fellow apparently was lying down in the back seat, and this fellow saw his head when he raised it.

Where: What happened to the boy who had his fortune told?

Ray Ensign: He jumped in the car and drove off in it.

Abner: Where is this fortune teller located?

Ray Ensign: (Described location of her trailer)

Alvis: Is Mr. Little there?

F.B. Little: Hello.

Alvis: This is Herbert Alvis at Hot Springs. Have you got a snatch on your records for the last 24 hours?

Little: No, not a thing.

Alvis: Well, we had a car to show up here all muddy. It was a big sedan and the driver had blood on him. He had some sort of package wrapped up on the back seat.
He went to a fortune teller here and the fortune teller read the cards and when they turned sep black and she told him there was trouble ahead he ran out and away.

MC Little: That looks funny. Do you know anything about the fortune teller?

Alux: No, she just came to town. What happened to that Mann Act Case?

Little: They're going to the Grand Jury.

Alux: Are they going before the Commissioner?

Little: Apparently not. You know about that fellow shipping bound in Memphis, don't you?

Alux: Yes, I just got his record. What has Damon done with his car case?

Little: Damon's been sick and just came back today. I'll ask him about it.
(Talk about grade)
Alors: We had another funny-looking case down here. A man and woman rented an apartment and paid rent up through Thursday and last night they shipped out in a hurry.
Little: That does look funny.
Alors: They didn't leave anything. I haven't seen what but I'm going out this afternoon.
Little: What kind of a car did they have?
Alors: I don't know.

11:20 P.M. - On #1. For Charlie (Killing)
Charlie - Hello.
Man - See if it gives a motor number on the decal of that car with tag # 49-463.
Charlie - (pause) No, there's no motor number given.
Man - Well, we found that other car that she was talking about. No one in it.
Charlie - OK.

9:00 A.M.  Outgoing  J.M.

Mayor:  2715 (Richard M. Rogers)

Woman:  Hello.

Mayor:  Do Judge Rogers think -

Rogers:  Hello.

Mayor:  Well, I just talked to Bruce Wallace about that fee - he's squawking about it - and it's more than much. I also talked with Kemp - he thought it was too high too.

Rogers:  Well, what the hell is the matter with them over there - they can't get people to join with stuff unless they pay for it.

Mayor:  Well, I told him we had done a lot of work on it, and that there was still a lot more to come.

9:12 A.M.  Incoming  J.M.

Miles:  Is Ledgerwood there?

Mast:  No, he's up in court.

Miles:  This is Brother Miles. I'll call him after court.
Out
Mayors called Grady Manning at Little Rock.
Manning: Hello.
Mayor: This is Less. What's going on over there? Is it raining?
Manning: Yes, it is.
Mayor: Who ordered that?
Manning: I don't know. We have a big crowd but the weather will be bad for the parade. Everything went off OK. I saw Gey yesterday and NiCollo was there. He said it wouldn't be brought up for several days and he assured me he would see me before then.
Mayor: What about this fellow Hollingerworth?
Manning: He isn't in the way. I don't believe, Scott Wood is.
Dear Mrs. March, Mayor's Office

Mann = Is Leo there?

Mayor = Hello.

Mann = Leo, we'll need six new ballet slippers.

Mayor = Well, you'd better have them made.

Mann = OK. I wanted to get your OK.

Miss March, Mayor's Office

Mrs. Lane = Is the Mayor in?

Mayor = Hello.

Mrs. Lane = Mr. McLaughlin, this is 1/1/37

Mrs. Lane at the Lane Apartments.

There are a bunch of stray dogs in the neighborhood that make a lot of noise and disturb my guests. Can anything be done about them?

Mayor: Well, the only thing is to find out who the owners are and swear out a warrant for maintaining disturbance.

Mrs. Lane: All right. Thanks.

9:57 AM

Judge Legerwood called 3601 and talked to Miles about going bird hunting.

10:09 AM

Mrs. Mars - Mayor's Office - Woman: Is Judge Legerwood there?

Legerwood: Hello.

Woman: This is Sally. Do you have a phone at the Como Hotel?

Legerwood: Just call the hotel and ask for room 470.
10:10 Out

Mayor Marsh 11:24 (Fire Dept)

Man  - Hello -

Mayor Marsh  - Tell Elmer to come to Mayor's Office.

Man  - All right.

10:15 In

Sterling Coxe at Little Rock called Mayor.

Mayor  - Hello -

Coxe  - This is Sterling Coxe. I won't be able to come over today.

Have you been able to work

on that loan?

Mayor  - No, not yet. When are you coming over again?

Coxe  - Next Tuesday. Respectfully,

Mayor  - Well, suppose you call me Monday and I'll let you know how things look then.

Coxe  - All right. Thanks.

10:54 AM

Mayor: Hello,
Earl: This is Earl at the Coast House.

Mayor: Have you heard anything?
Earl: Well, I talked to Doc and he says everything looks all right.

Our man Hedgesworth reported and it looks like we've got a pretty strong front.

Mayor: Well, that's fine.

1120 AM

Mayor: 44 1/6

Earl: Hello.
Mayor: This is Earl. There is a woman operating a booming house here.

Earl: But Hall's place. But she has a music hall down there while she says goes all hours. But an 11:00 o'clock limit on that.

Mayor: Alright.

Earl: Alright.

Mayor: Here's another at the place where he has the Quahita. Just same limit on that.

Earl: Alright. I'll take care of that.

11:57 A.M. Arriving 10-2

Mr. McLean: Do the major win?

Mrs. Marsh: No, he won.

Mr. McLean: This is Mr. McLean.

Mrs. Marsh: Oh yes. If it's urgent, I can get in touch with him.

Mr. McLean: No, it isn't that important. I just wanted to talk to him.

2:04 P.M. Arriving

Mrs. Marsh: 3336

Dorothy: Hello.

Mrs. Marsh: Dorothy, I was talking to Donna about that thing, and she said there is nothing she can do, and for you to see Miss Connors about it.

Dorothy: All right. Thank you, Hazel.
